A vampire is born when a mortal creature undergoes a change which causes the sensual physical body to revolt against the soul, usually expelling it, and taking control of the creature. The actions of the being are then controlled by either the remaining physical brain, the remnant of the soul, whatever caused the expelling of the soul, or a conglomerate of these forces.

Philosophy of the Vampire

Quite literally, a vampire in a relationship with a human is sucking their partner's energy away. It's almost too easy to turn this into a metaphor for an abusive relationship. In some cases, it's been used as a layman's term for a certain kind of abuser—the emotional vampire. And, while the vampires in Stephanie Meyer's Twilight are certainly much more benevolent and in control of ...

Dremora and ghosts are NPCs. The soul strength captured from a creature depends on its level. Some enemies have static levels, like Alpha Wolf, which always appears as level 2. Other creatures' levels depend on your character's level, like Magic Anomaly, which is your character's level multiplied by 1.75, then rounded down to the nearest level.
