The outcry that The Lancet articles provoked was a significant factor leading to the passing of the Metropolitan Poor Act in 1867. The Act introduced major changes in the provision of care for London's sick poor and resulted in the creation of the Metropolitan Asylums Board. The Act also led to the abolition of London's Local Act parishes and in 1868 the Guardians were reconstituted as a Board ...

FAYE'S AWAKENING eBook: Peters, Damon: Amazon.co.uk ...

A face is usually represented in a full moon and sometimes in a crescent moon, but this must not be confused with an ordinary heraldic crescent, as they are not similar. Moorcock The Moorcock or heathcock is a curious bird that has the head and body of an ordinary cock united with either the flat tail of black game, or two or more large tail feathers at right angles to its body.
