Wrongful execution is a miscarriage of justice occurring when an innocent person is put to death by capital punishment. Cases of wrongful execution are cited as an argument by opponents of capital punishment, while proponents suggest that the argument of innocence concerns the credibility of the justice system as a whole and does not solely undermine the use of death penalty. A variety of individuals are claimed to have been innocent victims of the death penalty. Newly available DNA evidence has

His May 19 execution raised questions about the public health ramifications of performing an execution in the midst of a pandemic. Barton had consistently maintained his innocence in the murder of Gladys Kuehler, and continued to do so in his final statement, saying, "I, Walter "Arkie" Barton, am innocent and they are executing an innocent man!!"
