In this Sim city there are 2 factors for zones: Wealth and Density. Wealth is increased by the land value and Density is increased by happiness/roads. So, to increase Wealth you need to increase the land value - to do this you need to build certain positive buildings, these include: mayor house/town hall, police/fire station, hospital, parks + others (I think tourist attractions increase it too).

This guide was originally compiled by Dee Finney, and I've updated it as new information has arisen. It lists how to properly space roads so that you can build efficiently, without a lot of wasted space. For proper spacing, you will use DIRT ROADS as a "pencil line", and draw them to the specified length (dollar amount) as noted below.
