Eight years in the making, this edgy, in-depth account follows a black felon's attempt to find a new life for himself with a white woman in a small-town neighborhood where—as the book's title

Get Free Zebra Note Cards

implies—such relationships are common. A

remarkably intense
read, Zebratown
reveals a rhythm of
life spiked with
violence, betrayal,
sex, and the
emotional dangers
created by passionate love. Greg Donaldson ' s
Zebratown follows

the life of Kevin

Davis, an ex-con from Brownsville,

Brooklyn, who, after
his release from

prison, moves to

Elmira, New York,

and takes up with

Karen, a young

woman with a six-
year-old daughter.

Kevin is seemingly

the embodiment of

hip-hop

gangsterism—a heavily muscled, feared thug who has beaten a murder rap. And yet, as Donaldson's stunning reportage reveals, Kevin has survived on the streets and in prison with a sharp intelligence and a rigid code of practical morality and physical fitness while yearning to make a better life for himself and be a better man. Month by month and year by year, Donaldson follows Kevin and Karen ' s attempt to make a home together, a quest made harder by Kevin ' s difficulty finding legal employment. The dangerous lures of the street remain for him, both in New York City and in Zebratown, and he is not always successful at avoiding them.

Meanwhile, as Kevin and Karen struggle, the reader comes to care for them, even as they act in ways that society may not condone. Theirs is a Complex story with many moments of drama, suffering, desire, and revelation—a story that is frequently astonishing and unforgettable to the end. Like Adrian Nicole LeBlanc in Random Family, Donaldson explores a largely hidden world; such immersion

Journalism is difficult to achieve but uniquely powerful to read. In addition to spending long periods with Kevin and Karen, Donaldson interviews policemen, judges, family members, and others in Kevin and Karen ' s orbit, providing a remarkably panoramic account of their lives.

Relationships
between white

women and black men have long been a
hot issue in American culture. Even years
after the 2008
presidential election,
when society has in
some ways seemingly
moved on to a
"postracial"
perspective, people

still have a lot to say about interracial
relationships.

Zebratown takes us
into the heart of one
and offers the
paradoxical truth that while race is rarely
not an issue in such relationships, in the end, what transpires
between a couple is
intensely individual.
Meanwhile, the

difficulty that ex-cons have successfully reentering society is an ongoing problem—for them, their families, and the communities where they live. Zebratown makes this struggle real, as Kevin Davis confronts not only his criminal record and his poor formal education but the cruelties of the postindustrial economy. Both his and Karen ' s stories resonate powerfully with twenty-first-century American reality, and in telling them, Greg Donaldson confirms his position as one of the most intrepid journalists at work today.

Artist Bernard

Maisner is one of the finest illuminators of manuscripts at work
today. His remarkable ability to work in miniature, as well as in grand scale paintings, combines with his love and mastery of historical and modern painting techniques to create an unusual and visually stunning body of work, thoroughly documented here. Maisner's search for meaning takes him in the direction of the art of illumination,

and the language of painting. Art historian Dore Ashton provides an essay in which she reflects on Maisner's quest to "grasp the passage of time in
living metaphors"
through the craft of
the illuminator.
